ASSETS OF CALIFORNIA POULTRY COMPANY UP FOR BID

-Tiger Group to sell rolling stock, farm equipment, poultry processing operations and real estate formerly owned by Zacky Farms in two auctions commencing March 5

LOS ANGELES (2/25/19)— Pursuant to a UCC foreclosure process, Tiger Group in cooperation with Barliant Auctions, is now accepting bids for a live online auction on March 5 for more than 200 units of well-maintained — as new as 2016 — rolling stock and farm equipment, including truck and farm tractors, poultry haulers, feed trailers, water trucks, pickup trucks and more. The assets were formerly owned by Zacky & Sons Poultry, LLC (dba Zacky Farms), which filed for bankruptcy November 13, 2018.

Tiger and Barliant Auctions will follow that with a separate, two-day live online auction commencing March 12 for Zacky Farms' poultry processing operations, including slaughter, whole bird packaging, boning and hot dog processing facilities and associated real estate. In advance of the event, Tiger is accepting offers for complete facilities or large blocks of the manufacturing assets. Interested parties may also submit offers — inclusive of real estate — to be sold with the cooperation of the real property secured parties.

The auction for the rolling stock will get under way at 10:00 a.m. (PT) March 5 at www.SoldTiger.com. The assets may be previewed March 4 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (PT) at two Zacky Farms locations: 2222 S. East Ave., Fresno; and at 590 W. Kamm Ave. in Caruthers.

The two-day poultry processing operations auction will begin at 10:00 a.m. (PT) March 12 at www.SoldTiger.com. Previews of the assets--which are located in Fresno, Kerman and Stockton—can be arranged by contacting Tiger Auction Operations Manager Wayne Hecht at (617) 207-0165 or whecht@TigerGroup.com.

“Food processing, agricultural, transportation and other companies will find tremendous value in the wide range of specialized assets and rolling stock presented in these auctions,” said Wayne Hecht of Tiger’s Commercial & Industrial Division.

Available rolling stock in the March 5th event includes more than ten 2013 Freightliner truck tractors; Ford, Chevrolet and GMC pickups and vans; and more than 70 dry van, reefer, poultry and utility trailers manufactured by Great Dane, Utility and others.

Farm and factory support equipment up for bid in the March 5 event includes tractors manufactured by Kubota, John Deere, New Holland and others; electric and liquid propane gas forklifts; pallet jacks; and more.

Poultry processing operations offered in the March 12-13 auction include a USDA turkey and chicken slaughter facility and whole bird packaging plant. Other major assets up for bid include a modern 100,000-square-foot hot dog processing plant with multiple vacuum blenders, a Weiler grinder, vacuum tumblers, Multivac packagers, a Weber slicing line, and a quality control laboratory featuring a Shimadzu chromatograph.

Headquartered in Los Angeles, the family owned Zacky Farms business traces its roots back to 1928, when Sam Zacky launched Sam’s Poultry Market. In 2012 the company filed for bankruptcy protection, but the Robert T. and Lillian D. Zacky Trust purchased the business at auction, enabling it to remain within the family. Successor company Zacky & Sons Poultry, LLC filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy on November 13, 2018 in the California Central Bankruptcy Court (Case Number 2:18bk23361).
